

Housing: adjectives

Połącz przymiotniki z ramki z ich objaśnieniami. Następnie uzupełnij zdania poniżej.

airy sought-after cosy refurbished versatile unfurnished spacious sleek cramped compact tacky cluttered

- _____ - cheap-looking, „loud”, not stylish
- _____ - messy and crowded
- _____ - modern, simple, with no extra details
- _____ - repaired and improved, refreshed
- _____ - warm, safe, welcoming and comfortable
- _____ - extremely small, with little free space
- _____ - small, but well organised and practical
- _____ - large, with plenty of room
- _____ - open, with lots of space, „breathable”
- _____ - very popular, wanted by many people
- _____ - without cupboards, chairs, tables etc.
- _____ - potentially useful in many different ways

- The extra room is very _____ : could be used as an office, a bedroom or a gym.
- Even with furniture installed, there was still plenty of room to move around in the _____ interior.
- The flat is _____ and a bit bare, but that means you can decorate it however you like!
- The villa is located in a quiet, but well-connected area, which makes it highly _____.
- While the dorm room was more than fine for the two of us, we worried that with a third roommate it'd suddenly become _____.
- Pristine, white walls and high ceilings made the apartment feel bright and _____.
- His office was filled with mostly smooth surfaces in solid colours, giving it a very _____ look.
- The soft lighting and smell of burning wood made the inside of the hut feel really _____.
- She rummaged through papers, pencils and various other objects on her _____ desk.
- The furniture was overly glossy, and cheap, shiny baubles stood on all flat surfaces. The bright lights were not helping the room appear any less _____, either.
- The studio is quite _____ : everything you need fits within a fairly small space.
- Although the building is old, it has been fully _____ and looks clean and fresh.

