Task Three: Anna Talks to Jake (15 marks)

A boy called Jake won the bike race. Anna is asking him some questions for her school magazine.

Write the questions in the spaces. The first one is an example.

Anna: Example: Well done, Jake! Are you feeling happy?

Jake: Yes, I'm feeling really happy.

Anna:

Jake: It took me two hours and ten minutes to finish the race.

Anna:

Jake: No. This year's race was easier than last year's.

Anna:

Jake: No I didn't. This was my first win. Last year I came second.

Anna:

Jake: Do the race again next year? Maybe.

Anna:

Jake: The best thing? When I saw the smile on Mum's face.

Task Four: The Day of the Bike Race (10 marks)

Look at the pictures of the day of the bike race.

Draw a line from the pictures to the correct sentences. The first one is an example.

Be careful. There are two extra sentences.

Here you are. This is going to make you feel better.

Let's phone for an ambulance.

Right everyone. Get ready. Go!

Thanks very much for that. I'm OK now.

Ow! Stop! That's terrible.

Oh, sorry! I didn't see you there.

Wow, look! They're going to go past us soon.

Tell me if this hurts too much.

Task Five: Anna Writes to Mia (15 marks)

Anna writes an email to her friend Mia.

Fill in the missing words. Use the verbs in the box below but don't forget to change them to the PAST TENSE because the race is finished.

The first one is an example.

Hi Mia.

What a day! Ben's bike race (example) took place today.

We all (1) the house early this morning and we were lucky because we (2) a good place to watch the race from. Jack sat on Dad's shoulders and Sophie and I (3) next to each other on some steps.

The race (4) and we all called out to Ben when he

(5) his bike past us. So exciting!

Just a bit later, a doctor at the hospital (6) Mum up on her mobile. Then she (7) Mum all about Ben falling off his bike. Mum and Dad (8) back home with Sophie and Jack to wait for Ben, but I stayed in town.

I (9) up with my school friend Carly there and we (10) really fast to watch the end of the race.

Poor Ben! I feel so sorry for him.

Love, Anna.
