Four main animal friends Marty, Alex, Gloria and Melman live in New York Zoo.

The lion Alex is the bravest of all. He is more confident than his friends and loves to perform. He thinks he is the best dancer in the world!

Marty is the most cheerful zebra. He is funnier than Alex and always wants to have adventures. He dreams of seeing bigger places than the zoo.

The giraffe Melman is taller than all the others. He is also more nervous than his friends. He worries about everything and often checks if he is healthy.

The hippo Gloria is stronger than she looks. She is kinder than many people think and always supports her friends. She is also the most optimistic of the group.

Their adventures are more exciting than life in the zoo, and they learn that friendship is the most important thing of all!
