

Narrative Essay Structure Worksheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Part 1: Multiple Choice

1. Which part of the narrative essay introduces the setting and the main character?

- a) The solution
- b) The scene (person, place, time)
- c) The important message
- d) The action

2. Where should the "problem" typically be placed in a narrative essay?

- a) In the introduction
- b) Within the events/action section
- c) As the very last sentence
- d) In the title only

Part 2: True or False

3. True or False: A good narrative essay should only focus on the events and does not need a message or lesson. (_____)

4. True or False: The "solution" explains how the character overcomes or deals with the problem they faced. (_____)

Part 3: Short Answer

5. Why is it important to include an "important message" at the end of a personal narrative?

6. In your own words, describe how the "events/action" part of the essay is different from the "problem" part.