

7 Amazing Stories

VOCABULARY Storytelling

1 Complete the puzzle. Use the clues below.

Across

- a genre of literature; not based on real people or facts
- very old
- a traditional story about the early history of people
- a diary

Down

- the events of a story
- a person in a book, film or play

2 Replace the words in bold with the adjectives below.

thrilling • imaginary • ordinary • amusing
awful • suitable • incredible • unimportant

- We read some funny stories.
- I thought the play was terrible. I didn't enjoy it at all.
- In fantasy books, the characters and places are not real.
- Graphic novels are amazing. The illustrations make the story come alive.
- The main characters are two typical teenagers.
- This novel is appropriate for children and adults.
- These details are not essential for the understanding of the plot.
- I couldn't stop reading this exciting book!

3 Complete the words in the sentences.

- The s ..... t ..... of The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes is late 19th-century London.
- A l ..... g ..... is a famous story from the past.
- William Shakespeare wrote plays and he was also a p ..... t .....
- Cinderella* is a famous f ..... r ..... t .....
- According to Greek m ..... s, Hercules was half man and half god.

4 Write six sentences with the words below. Use one word from A and one word from B in each sentence.

A

incredible      amusing unimportant      ancient thrilling      awful

B

plot      fairy tale
myth      poet
character      legend

- .....
- .....
- .....
- .....
- .....
- .....

LANGUAGE Relative pronouns

5 Choose the correct answers. Then tick (✓) the sentences that are true for you.

- I prefer reading stories which / where / who are based on true events.
- My favourite characters in books are people who / whose / that personalities are similar to mine.
- The weekend is the time which / when / where I read most.
- My bedroom is the place whose / that / where I prefer to read.
- I only read books that / when / whose have got interesting pictures on the cover.
- I haven't got many friends which / where / who frequently read books.

