

Instructions: Read each statement carefully and write TRUE or FALSE.

1. Nicolás's presentation focuses only on environmental problems in cities.
2. His presentation is structured around three interconnected themes.
3. He suggests that transport systems can contribute to reducing pollution.
4. Recycling and energy are presented as unrelated to sustainability.
5. Nicolás plans to support his ideas using visual materials.
6. Gwen believes the presentation lacks organization and clarity.
7. Economic growth is linked to employment, wages, and training opportunities.
8. Nicolás implies that innovation plays a role in increasing productivity.
9. Poverty is described as an issue that cannot be improved through social support.
10. Well-being is presented as more than just financial stability.
11. Nicolás avoids including audience participation in his presentation.
12. The conversation shows that Nicolás is preparing to respond to audience questions.