

1. Unable to decide between two options:

- A) make up your mind
 - B) in two minds
 - C) keep in mind
 - D) change your mind
-

2. To remember something important later:

- A) bear in mind
 - B) keep in mind
 - C) have at hand
 - D) have sth on your mind
-

3. To consider something carefully before acting:

- A) keep in mind
 - B) bear in mind
 - C) make up your mind
 - D) take your mind off sth
-

4. To finally reach a decision after thinking:

- A) change your mind
 - B) make up your mind
 - C) be in two minds
 - D) dig your heels in
-

5. To change a decision you already made:

- A) make up your mind
- B) change your mind

- C) dig your heels in
 - D) bear in mind
-

6. To refuse to change your opinion (stubbornly):

- A) be in two minds
 - B) dig your heels in
 - C) keep in mind
 - D) see eye to eye
-

7. To have something worrying you constantly:

- A) keep in mind
 - B) have sth on your mind
 - C) take your mind off sth
 - D) bear in mind
-

8. To stop thinking about something unpleasant:

- A) have sth on your mind
 - B) take your mind off sth
 - C) keep in mind
 - D) make up your mind
-

9. To have something ready and available immediately:

- A) keep in mind
 - B) have at hand
 - C) get into the wrong hands
 - D) bear in mind
-

10. To become accessible to the wrong people:

- A) have at hand
 - B) get into the wrong hands
 - C) give someone a piece of your mind
 - D) pull someone's leg
-

11. To strongly criticize someone angrily:

- A) break someone's heart
 - B) give someone a piece of your mind
 - C) pull someone's leg
 - D) see eye to eye
-

12. To joke with someone in a friendly way:

- A) give someone a piece of your mind
 - B) pull someone's leg
 - C) break someone's heart
 - D) go out of your mind
-

13. To make someone extremely unhappy emotionally:

- A) give someone a piece of your mind
 - B) break someone's heart
 - C) tear your hair out
 - D) go out of your mind
-

14. To become mentally unstable or unable to think clearly:

- A) tear your hair out
- B) go out of your mind

- C) have sth on your mind
 - D) bear in mind
-

15. To feel extremely stressed or frustrated:

- A) go out of your mind
 - B) tear your hair out
 - C) break someone's heart
 - D) dig your heels in
-

16. To agree completely with someone:

- A) keep in mind
 - B) see eye to eye
 - C) bear in mind
 - D) make up your mind
-

17. To be much better than others in comparison:

- A) head and shoulders above
 - B) see eye to eye
 - C) have at hand
 - D) in two minds
-

18. To feel relieved after a problem disappears:

- A) take your mind off sth
 - B) a weight off your shoulders
 - C) have sth on your mind
 - D) keep in mind
-

19. To hesitate between two decisions:

- A) be in two minds
 - B) make up your mind
 - C) change your mind
 - D) dig your heels in
-

20. To think about something and not forget it:

- A) keep in mind
 - B) have at hand
 - C) take your mind off sth
 - D) see eye to eye
-

21. To insist on your opinion despite pressure:

- A) change your mind
 - B) dig your heels in
 - C) be in two minds
 - D) bear in mind
-

22. To express anger directly to someone:

- A) pull someone's leg
 - B) give someone a piece of your mind
 - C) break someone's heart
 - D) see eye to eye
-

23. To temporarily forget about a worry:

- A) have sth on your mind
- B) take your mind off sth

- C) keep in mind
 - D) bear in mind
-

24. To have identical opinions:

- A) see eye to eye
 - B) head and shoulders above
 - C) in two minds
 - D) dig your heels in
-

25. To make a firm decision:

- A) be in two minds
 - B) make up your mind
 - C) change your mind
 - D) keep in mind
-

26. To joke in a way that may confuse someone slightly:

- A) give someone a piece of your mind
 - B) pull someone's leg
 - C) break someone's heart
 - D) go out of your mind
-

27. To suddenly lose rational thinking:

- A) tear your hair out
 - B) go out of your mind
 - C) have at hand
 - D) keep in mind
-

28. To carefully remember advice or information:

- A) bear in mind
 - B) take your mind off sth
 - C) be in two minds
 - D) dig your heels in
-

29. To stop worrying because a problem is solved:

- A) a weight off your shoulders
 - B) have sth on your mind
 - C) keep in mind
 - D) see eye to eye
-

30. To be thinking continuously about a problem:

- A) take your mind off sth
 - B) have sth on your mind
 - C) bear in mind
 - D) make up your mind
-