1.2 Present Simple.

Positive and negative sentences

- We use Present Simple to talk about routines and habits.

+	I / You / We / They like reading books.	He / She / It likes reading books.
-	I / You / We / They don't like playing football.	He / She / It doesn't like playing football.
?	Do I / you / we / they like reading books?	Does he / she / it like reading books?

Remember! Spelling Rules:

general rule -s	verbs ending in - o, sh, tch, s, x -es	verbs ending in consonants + y -ies
work - works	brush - brushes	study - studies
eat - eats	go - goes	try - tries
play - plays	kiss - kisses	cry - cries
swim - swims	watch - watches	fly - flies
walk - walks	mix - mixes	spy - spies

Remember have - has

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 3

Correct mistakes in the sentences. Rewrite correct sentences.

Example: Does your dad ~~likes~~ rock music?

Does your dad like rock music?

1. Picnic is food that you takes out to eat.

2. He don't like coffee.

3. We always goes to the cinema together.

4. Do your parents watches horror films?

5. Jim never brushies his teeth in the evening.

6. Dos he like playing basketball?

LIVEWORKSHEETS