2. Use were for all subjects after wish . Was is often used in informal conversation.	I wish it were warmer. Then, I could go swimming. I can't pay my bills. I wish I were rich.
3. Could (not can) can be used after wish .	I wish I could go to the party next week.
4. Use would + the base form of the verb when you are dissatisfied or unhappy with something or someone.	I wish it would stop raining. I wish you wouldn't leave your dishes in the sink.
5. Be careful! Do not confuse wish with hope . Wish expresses a regret for something that will not happen. Hope expresses a desire for something that might happen. 7 READ & WRITE.

A Read the story from the movie All Is Lost.

A man is on a sailboat in the Indian Ocean. When he wakes up one morning, he sees water in the bottom of the boat. He realizes that his boat has hit a large container that fell off a ship, and the crash has resulted in a hole in his boat. The man is very skillful, so he is able to repair the hole. Soon after, there is a bad storm, and his boat gets badly damaged. Before it sinks, the man takes some supplies and gets into a life raft. When two ships pass near his raft, he tries to signal them. Neither of the ships notices him. He is running out of food and water, so he is very worried. On the eighth night he sees a light in the distance and thinks it might be another boat. He lights a fire in the life raft, but the fire gets out of control, and the raft catches fire. The man falls off the raft into the ocean.

B Rewrite each sentence about the movie as a past unreal conditional. Add commas where necessary. Sometimes there is more than one correct way to rewrite the sentence.

1. There was water in his boat because it hit a large container.

If his boat hadn't hit the large container, water wouldn't have gotten into the boat. OR Water wouldn't have been in his boat if it had not hit the large container.

2. The man was able to fix the hole because he was skillful.

3. He survived because he got into the life raft.

4. The people on the other ships didn't see him, so they didn't rescue him.
