

U8

Grammar

1) What is the purpose of using "Such...That" in English?

- a) To express a contradiction between two ideas
- b) To show cause and effect or to make an adjective or adverb stronger
- c) To indicate a future event
- d) To introduce a question in a sentence

choose

2) Which of the following sentences correctly uses "Such...That"?

- a) It was such an unusual event that no one could predict it
- b) He is so much smarter than anyone I know
- c) She is so friendly, and that's why I like her
- d) We have many things to do today

choose

3) Which of the following is an example of the correct usage of "So + adjective + that"?

- a) She is so talented that she can do anything
- b) He is so the best at his work
- c) It was so weather that I had to stay inside
- d) They ran so quickly that they were not tired

choose

4) True or False: "Such" can be used with nouns to create a stronger meaning

- a) True
- b) False

choose