

Intonation Worksheet

Objective: Identify and classify rising and falling intonation

Rising intonation (↗) is used in yes/no questions. Falling intonation (↘) is used in statements and WH-questions.

Exercise 1: Identify the Intonation

Instructions: Listen and choose Rising (↗) or Falling (↘).

	Falling	Rising
Are you ready?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Where do you live?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Do you like coffee?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
What is your name?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Is she your friend?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Why are you late?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Can you help me?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Where is the station?	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Intonation Worksheet

Objective: Identify and classify rising and falling intonation

Rising intonation (↗) is used in yes/no questions. Falling intonation (↘) is used in statements and WH-questions.

Exercise 2: Classify the Sentences

Instructions: Select the number of each sentence in the correct column according to its intonation

1. Are you ready?
2. Where do you live?
3. Do you like coffee?
4. What is your name?
5. Is she your friend?
6. Why are you late?
7. Can you help me?
8. Where is the station?

Falling

Rising