Interviewer: Welcome to ABC Controls, David. I am Tom.

Interviewee: Hello, it's nice to meet you.

Interviewer: Nice to _____ you too, how are you doing today?

Interviewee: I am doing well, and yourself?

Interviewer: Great, thanks. I hope we didn't keep you _____ for long?

Interviewee: No, I had the chance to talk to one of your engineers while waiting.

Interviewer: That's good. David, shall we start?

Interviewee: Yeah, sure.

Interviewer: First of all, let me introduce myself. I am the _____ of our engineering department here and we have an open position, so we have been interviewing applicants to fill the _____ as quickly as possible.

Interviewee: Yes sir, I read about the position on your website, and I think I am a good fit.

Interviewer: We currently have several ongoing projects and the team is working hard. We are hoping to keep busy for a long time.

Interviewee: What are the essential _____ required for the position?

Interviewer: This is an entry-level engineering position, we do provide a lot of _____ here. But we do require that you have at least a bachelor's degree in computer engineering. Previous experience in the field is a plus.

Interviewee: What kind of experience would you count as a work in the field?

Interviewer: Even though we provide training, it would be great if you had some hands-on programming _____, knowledge of database systems or skills on developing applications.

Interviewee: My final school project was actually developing a mobile application, so I am fairly competent in developing mobile and web applications.

Interviewer: That's good to hear, which school did you graduate from?

Interviewee: I was a student at DEF University, and I graduated with a bachelor degree in computer science. I worked as a computer lab tutor in school for about 2 years. Guiding students through their projects helped me get experience in several programming languages.

Interviewer: What are you looking for in a _____?

Interviewee: The job should definitely help me grow in my _____. I will be happy to learn and grow as I work in a passionate company like yours.

Interviewer: You are right. There is plenty of room for advancement in our company. What are your strengths? Why should I hire you?

Interviewee: I am a diligent person and a fast learner. I am very eager to learn. My friends also find me very easy to work with.

Interviewer: Very well. Do you have any questions for me?

Interviewee: No, I think I have a pretty good understanding of the _____. I believe that I can handle it with ease, and the fact that you provide all the training sounds excellent. I hope to have the opportunity to work for you.

Interviewer: David, It is nice to meet you. I can tell that you are a good candidate. Expect to hear from us within a week or so about the job.

Interviewee: Nice meeting you too. Thank you for your time.

Interviewer: Thank you for coming.
