10. She studied hard. She didn't pass the test. (though)

→ Though she studied hard, she didn't pass the test.

She didn't pass the test though she studied hard.

11. I'm tired. I want to finish this book. (but)

→ I'm tired, but I want to finish this book.

12. It's early. We should start preparing for the party. (but)

→ It's early, but we should start preparing for the party

13. He's not the tallest. He's the fastest runner on the team. (even though)

→ Even though he's not the tallest, he's the fastest runner on the team.

He's the fastest runner on the team even though he's not the tallest

14. She missed the train. She arrived at the station just in time for the next one. (although)

→ Although she missed the train, she arrived at the station just in time for the next one.

She arrived at the station just in time for the next one, although she missed the train

LIVEWORKSHEETS