

FREQUENCY ADVERBS

Frequency adverbs help us describe how often an action occurs, or how many times the action has occurred.

Most common: always, usually, often, sometimes, hardly ever, never.

Frequency

Adverbs

always usually often

sometimes hardly ever

never

Examples

She always brushes her teeth after lunch

He usually drinks coffee in the morning

They often read books

We sometimes wake up late

He hardly ever gets angry

I am never late

GRAMMAR STRUCTURE

Positive:

Subject

Frequency adverb

Verb

Complement

Subject

Verb "To be"

Frequency adverb

Complement

A

EXERCISES

1 Choose the best answer to complete each sentence.

He ___ early on Sundays.

- a. gets up usually
- b. usually gets up

Lily ___ late for school.

- a. is never
- b. never is

She ___ cake for dinner.

- a. sometimes has
- b. has sometimes

I ___ my teeth after lunch.

- a. brush always
- b. always brush

We ___ Chinese food.

- a. eat sometimes
- b. sometimes eat

What do you do after lunch?

- a. I usually wash the dishes
- b. I wash usually the dishes

Adriana ___ early for class.

- a. often is
- b. is often

He ___ video games.

- a. hardly ever plays
- b. hardly plays ever

2 Reorder the words to make sentences.

I

after

take a shower

always

wake up

I

He

to sometimes

goes

gym

the

often

She

listens

music

to

drink

coffee

in the morning

usually

You

go

to

hardly ever

We

the

disco

never

Vegetarians

eat

meat