Attention, teachers.

There ~~are~~ many problems at our school recently, dealing with the students and our school environment, and all the problems need quick solutions. Therefore, please attend a teacher's meeting at the teachers' office on Saturday at 1 p.m., to discuss the problems. We are one of the best schools in town and I hope we can maintain the achievement. Don't be late for the meeting and feel free to share your ideas.

Thank you.
