

The Perfect Pet for You - Inference Tablesheet

| Q.No | Inference Question                                                                            | Options                            | Write Answer |
|------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|--------------|
| 1    | Why does the author compare a hamster to 'a drummer who only plays at 2:00 AM'?               | a) Active when people sleep        | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | b) Enjoys loud noises              | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | c) Should be kept outside          | _____        |
| 2    | What can you infer about rabbits from the fact that tall cages with tubes are 'not suitable'? | a) Prefer climbing                 | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | b) Can get hurt without flat space | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | c) Like sleeping in tubes          | _____        |
| 3    | Why does the author explain that reptiles need heat lamps and UVB lights?                     | a) Simple pets                     | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | b) Need special care               | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | c) Can live anywhere               | _____        |
| 4    | What can you infer about families who travel often?                                           | a) Struggle with daily-care pets   | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | b) Should choose water pets        | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | c) Should buy many pets            | _____        |
| 5    | Why does the author say 'the perfect pet isn't just the cutest one'?                          | a) Cute pets are expensive         | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | b) Pet must match lifestyle        | _____        |
|      |                                                                                               | c) Cute pets are nocturnal         | _____        |