

Helen Keller was born on June 27, 1880, in Alabama, United States. When she was 19 months old, she became blind and deaf because of an illness. Her teacher, Anne Sullivan, _____ her learn to communicate in 1887. Helen worked very hard and learned to read, write, and speak. In 1904, she graduated from Radcliffe College, becoming the first deaf-blind person to earn a university degree. Helen Keller _____ for people with disabilities and fought for their rights. She helped improve education and opportunities for blind and deaf people. She _____port others. Helen Keller _____ hope to people with disabilities and protected their rights through her activism. She _____ her comfort by traveling to many countries to share her message.