A day to remember

A. VOCABULARY: Describing feelings and opinions.

Do these sentences have a positive or negative meaning? Write P or N.

1 The cars went very fast. It was very dangerous. ___
2 My parents were angry because I didn't finish my homework. ___
3 When my neighbor plays her music really loud, I can't read. ___
4 The concert last night was amazing. ___
5 He is a strange person. I don't like him. ___
6 The weather last week was horrible. It rained every day. ___
7 I passed my driving test. My parents are very proud. ___
8 My high school graduation party was really fun! ___
9 My best friend always makes me laugh. She is crazy! ___
10 I went to a restaurant for my birthday. The food was perfect. ___
11 I'm always tired when I get home from work. ___
12 I really like my English classes. My teacher is so cool. ___

B. GRAMMAR: Simple Past

Complete the stories with the simple past of the verbs in parentheses.

1.My First Trip Alone

Last year, I _____ (travel) to another city by myself for the first time. I _____ (feel) nervous at the airport, but everything _____ (go) well. I _____ (arrive) at the hotel in the afternoon and _____ (meet) some friendly people there. On the second day, I _____ (visit) a famous museum and _____ (take) many photos. At night, I _____ (try) local food and really _____ (like) it.

2.A Special Birthday

Two years ago, my friends _____ (plan) a surprise birthday party for me. They _____ (decorate) the house with balloons and music. When I _____ (open) the door, everyone _____ (shout) "Happy Birthday!" I _____ (be) very surprised and happy. We _____ (dance), _____ (eat) cake, and _____ (sing) together all night. Before they left, my best friend _____ (give) me a beautiful gift.

3.An Unforgettable School Day

When I was younger, my class _____ (go) on a school trip to a science museum. We _____ (leave) early in the morning by bus. During the trip, our teacher _____ (tell) us interesting facts about space and technology. At the museum, I _____ (see) a robot for the first time and _____ (learn) many new things. Later, we _____ (watch) a short science movie and _____ (buy) souvenirs before going home.

LIVEWORKSHEETS