

Exercise 2

Read each sentence carefully.

Identify the verb or verbs in the sentences. Remember that an auxiliary verb is also part of the verb.

1. We conduct experiments in the laboratory.
2. Several girls wrote and passed the test.
3. Will you come to my birthday party?
4. Columbus first sailed across the Atlantic Ocean five hundred years ago.
5. The pupils have worked diligently during the past term.
6. One of the boys broke the window pane.
7. Have you seen my new, red pen?
8. May I leave the classroom, please?
9. The woman was attacked by a swarm of bees.
10. The pupils stood at attention and sang the National Anthem.
11. When the doctor arrived, she examined the patient and wrote a prescription.
12. We must always obey our teachers.
13. I began my journey, long before the sun had risen.
14. "Where have you been?" asked the teacher.
15. A goal was scored during the final minute of the game.
16. All of us could have solved the problem.
17. Mary had several new pencils.
18. You were standing at the bus-stop.
19. If you multiply the numbers, you will get the answer.
20. If you work hard, you will succeed.

