

AL NOOR INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL

Riyadh, KSA

Name: _____
 Subject: English – Vocabulary
 Worksheet #: _____

Grade/Section: _____
 Date: _____
 Score: _____

I. Multiple Choice

Direction: Identify what is defined in the following statements.

1. A word that means the act of criticizing something often unfairly.
2. A word that means shocked or horrified.
3. A word that means feeling doubt or uncertainty.
4. A word that means to please someone with an offering.
5. A word that means a strong feeling of eagerness.

II. Fill in the blanks.

Direction: Choose the word that best completes each sentence.

wavering lurid potency ambivalence judicious

1. Because of its high _____, the herb can make people act in strange ways.
2. Even though some of the pictures of the bombing victims were quite _____, the newspaper still decided to print them.
3. Because he was not ready to be tied down, Mark felt a great deal of _____ about caring for his sick mother on a full-time basis.
4. The letter mentioned that he had found the map and with a _____ bribe was allowed to copy it.
5. While we were _____, somebody else bought the house.