Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 36.

Ban Gioc Waterfall, located in Cao Bang Province, Vietnam, is one of the most stunning natural wonders in Southeast Asia. It lies on the Quay Son River, forming part of the border between Vietnam and China. The waterfall is divided into two main parts: the primary waterfall, which is larger and more powerful, and a smaller one nearby. Both are surrounded by lush green forests, rolling hills, and dramatic limestone mountains, creating an extraordinary natural landscape.

The best time to visit Ban Gioc Waterfall is during the rainy season, from June to September, when the water flows most rapidly and powerfully, making the falls more spectacular. However, during the dry season, from October to May, visitors can enjoy a calmer and clearer view of the falls, with peaceful sounds of water and breathtaking scenery. Many tourists choose to take bamboo raft rides that bring them close to the falls, where they can feel the cool mist on their faces and enjoy the majestic view up close.

Apart from its natural beauty, Ban Gioc Waterfall holds cultural and historical values. The local Tay and Nung ethnic groups live in nearby villages, preserving their traditional customs, crafts, and lifestyles. Their presence adds unique charm to the area, attracting both nature enthusiasts and cultural explorers.

With its impressive scenery and cultural richness, Ban Gioc Waterfall is a must-see destination for anyone visiting Vietnam.
