DEMONSTRATIVE PRONOUNS
THE VERY HUNGRY CATERPILLAR

Complete the sentences with “this”, “that”, “these”, or “those”.
Look at the hints between brackets for help.

1. _____ caterpillar is very small. (singular, near)
2. Look at _____ apples on the table! (plural, near)
3. _____ is a big green leaf. (singular, near)
4. Can you see _____ butterfly over there? (singular, far)
5. _____ strawberries are delicious. (plural, near)
6. _____ moon in the sky is bright tonight. (singular, far)
7. _____ is one chocolate cake for the caterpillar. (singular, near)
8. _____ oranges in the basket are juicy. (plural, near)
9. I like _____ tiny egg on the leaf. (singular, near)
10. _____ cupcakes over there look sweet. (plural, far)
11. _____ caterpillar here is very hungry. (singular, near)
12. Do you remember _____ pear from Tuesday? (singular, far)
13. _____ ice creams are cold and colorful. (plural, near)
14. Wow! _____ is a beautiful butterfly in the garden. (singular, far)
15. _____ leaves here are green. (plural, near)
16. Who wants _____ slice of watermelon here? (singular, near)
17. _____ pickle over there is sour. (singular, far)
18. _____ sausages in that basket are long. (plural, far)
19. _____ cocoon on the branch is hanging carefully. (singular, far)
20. _____ fruits over there are for the caterpillar. (plural, far)

LIVEWORKSHEETS