

Zero – First – Second Conditionals

#1. Think of a situation and put the verbs into the correct form and the correct Conditional type.

1. It is a well-known fact that if you (heat) ice, it (melt).
2. If your manager (offer) you a job in a different country, you accept it?
3. If Linda (be) here, I'm sure she (help) us, what a shame she's not here now.
4. My colleague is ill and I've promised to visit him this week. He (get) upset if I (not see) him this week.
5. I always (call) my husband when I (stay in) at work.
6. Our boss (not be) disappointed if you (tell) him the truth before acting on your own.
7. If I (be) you, I (call off) a meeting with the people who had already put it off 3 times. They are not reliable.
8. When it (rain) the road (get) slippery, so drivers should be really careful.
9. If you (get) promoted soon, you (move) office?
10. you (sign) a contract with them if they (ask) for a bigger discount that you can afford?
11. If you (can) live anywhere in the world, where you like to live?
12. It has been scientifically proved that if you (eat) too many sweets, you (get) fat.