Pacers Champions Again

Last night the streets of Linford were full of basketball fans after the Linford Pacers won the National Championship.

The Thornton Kings lost to the Pacers 98-97 in an amazing game. Once again Graham Stone was Linford's hero. He played amazingly well and scored in the last second to win the game.

The Pacers have won four championships in the last five years. Many people say that coach Jim London is the man to thank for the Pacers' success. He has been the Pacers' coach for ten years now, but unfortunately, last night was London's last game.

The question now is 'Who is going to be coach next year?' Well, after last night's performance many fans would like Graham Stone to be the next coach, but maybe he's not ready yet. We will see.

1. Who was in the streets of Linford last night?
a. the Linford Pacers
b. Linford Pacers' fans
c. the Thornton Kings
2. How long has Jim London trained the Pacers?
a. four years
