

MATCHING THE TONE

Look at the pairs of sentences below. One is Formal (appropriate for staff, announcements, or complaints) and one is Informal (appropriate for friends or family). Write "F" for Formal and "I" for Informal next to each sentence.

- "Yo, that coaster was wicked! My stomach is literally in my mouth."
- "The acceleration on that particular ride was remarkably intense."
- "Excuse me, sir. Could you please direct us to the nearest dining facility?"
- "Hey, where can we grab some food? I'm starving."
- "We regret to inform you that the roller coaster is temporarily closed for maintenance."
- "Bummer! The ride is broken down right now."
- "Kindly ensure your safety restraints are securely fastened prior to the commencement of the attraction."
- "Make sure your seatbelt is clicked in tight before we start going!"
- "No way am I waiting two hours for a ride. Let's go get a churro instead."
- "I am disinclined to remain in this queue for such an extended duration; perhaps we should seek refreshments."
- "We have arrived at the designated meeting point, but our companions are nowhere to be found."
- "We're at the Ferris wheel but the guys totally ghosted us."
- "Are you okay? You look kinda green after that spinny thing."
- "Are you experiencing any feelings of nausea following your experience on the carousel?"
- "Management is not responsible for any personal items lost during the

