My Australian Adventure

by Alicia Jones

We arrived in Sydney on Friday and have been exploring the city for a few days. It's a great place with so many cool things to see and do. I think the best thing about the city is that you can never get bored. My parents enjoyed eating out in different restaurants, and my brother really loved our trip on the jet boat around Sydney Harbour! The boat travelled really fast, and we saw the Opera House and Harbour Islands. We even went past the Taronga Zoo!

But the real adventure begins tomorrow. We're taking the train to Perth on the Indian Pacific railway! It's one of the longest train journeys in the world - 4,352 km! We'll be travelling past gold mines, the amazing Blue Mountains, and we may see some wild animals too. I hope I see some kangaroos! It's faster to travel by plane, but Dad thought this would be more fun, and it's something we've never done before!

Because we'll be on the train for four days, we've booked cabins so that we can sleep more easily. Having a bed of our own, instead of trying to sleep in a train seat, will really help. I'll be staying with my mum, and my brother will be in my dad's cabin. We've also got some space for our luggage - and all the souvenirs we've bought! We have to share a bathroom with other passengers on the train, but that's OK.

When we arrive in Perth next Sunday, we're going to stay with my aunt and uncle. They have a nice house by the beach. I'd like to visit the night food market. It has food from 30 countries around the world, and only opens at night. It's free to enter the market, and there are even some bands that play. I can't wait!
