

HOMOPHONES

Homophones are words that sound the same but have different meanings and spellings.

TOO = also / very

I have too many books.

TO = direction / toward

I am going to the store.

1 CHOOSE THE CORRECT WORD.

Read each sentence and circle the correct homophone.

1 I am going (too / to) the park.

2 She has (too / to) many toys.

3 Are you coming (too / to) my house?

4 I like pizza (too / to).

5 We walked (too / to) the library.

6 I want (two / to) cookies.

7 Please give me (two / to) pencils.

8 I have (two / to) sisters.

9 Let's go (two / to) the movies.

10 I read (two / to) books today.

2 WRITE THE CORRECT HOMOPHONE.

Choose the correct word from the box and write it in the blank.

too to two too to two too to two too

1. I went _____ the doctor yesterday.

2. I have _____ brothers.

3. This soup is _____ hot!

4. Can you help me _____ my homework?

5. There are _____ cats on the table.

6. I want _____ ice creams, please.

7. She is coming _____ our party.

8. I have _____ many chores to do.

9. Turn left and go _____ the end of the road.

10. We read _____ books about space.

TIP!

Read the sentence carefully and think about the meaning. The context will help you choose the correct word!

