

Transformation, Urbanization, & Growing Cities in the 1900s Test

Part 1 – Multiple Choice

Choose the best answer for each question.

- The rapid growth of cities during the early 1900s was called _____.
 - segregation
 - urbanization
 - reconstruction
 - migration
- Many people moved to cities in search of _____.
 - farms
 - forests
 - jobs
 - gold
- Overcrowded apartment buildings in cities were often called _____.
 - mansions
 - suburbs
 - tenements
 - cabins
- Factories in growing cities needed many _____.
 - tourists
 - workers
 - soldiers
 - farmers
- New forms of transportation in cities included _____.
 - wagons only
 - submarines
 - streetcars and subways
 - airplanes only
- One major problem in crowded cities was _____.
 - overcrowding
 - too much farmland
 - lack of buildings
 - empty schools
- Immigrants often settled in _____ areas of cities.
 - rural
 - wealthy
 - industrial
 - desert
- Improvements in _____ allowed skyscrapers to be built.
 - steel construction
 - farming tools
 - wooden bridges
 - candles
- City reformers worked to improve sanitation and _____ health.
 - public
 - military
 - foreign
 - private
- The growth of factories and industries was part of the _____ Revolution.
 - Agricultural
 - Scientific
 - Industrial
 - Transportation

Part 2 – True or False

- ____ Urbanization means people moved from cities to farms.
- ____ Tenement housing was often crowded and unsafe.
- ____ Public transportation helped cities grow larger.
- ____ Industrial growth created more job opportunities in cities.
- ____ Most immigrants avoided living in cities during the early 1900s.

Part 3 – Fill in the Blank

Word Bank

tenements

urbanization

rapidly

transportation

jobs

16. The movement of people into cities is called _____.
 17. Many immigrants came to cities looking for factory _____.
 18. Overcrowded apartment buildings were known as _____.
 19. Streetcars and subways are forms of public _____.
 20. The Industrial Revolution caused cities to grow very _____.
-