

Worksheet 1: Back to the 60's — Time Travel to the 1960s

Reading Text

The 1960s were colorful. Many young people listened to new music. Bands played rock and pop. Fashion was eye-catching. Jeans, colorful shirts, and long hair were popular. People protested for peace and freedom. There were new ideas in art and film. Technology was simpler than today. Many families watched TV in the evening. The 60s changed the world a little bit.

Fill-in-the-Blanks

Fill the blanks with the appropriate words.

- The 1960s were _____.
 - Many young people listened to new _____.
 - Bands played _____ and pop.
 - People protested for _____ and freedom.
 - Many families watched _____ in the evening.
- [Word Bank]: Jeans, television, colorful, music, peace*

Multiple-Choice Questions

Choose the correct answer.

1. What was popular in 60s fashion?
A) Suits
B) Jeans
C) Sweatpants
2. What music did many young people listen to?
A) Classical
B) Jazz
C) Rock
3. What did many people protest for?
A) For more work
B) For peace
C) For expensive cars
4. How was technology compared to today?
A) Simpler
B) More modern
C) Faster
5. What did the 60s change?
A) Nothing
B) The world a little bit
C) The weather

Open Questions

Answer the questions in complete sentences.

- Name two things that were popular in the 60s.
- Why did people protest?
- How was technology back then?