A summer holiday

Last summer, Daisy's family decided to go on a camping holiday. Her brother Peter was excited, but Daisy wasn't. "I want to go sightseeing in a big city," thought Daisy. "I don't want to camp in a tent."

In the car, the family talked about the holiday. "We're going to go to the beach," said Mum. "Wow! I want to go snorkelling!" said Peter. "I want to take a boat trip." said Dad.

- 1 Daisy and Peter's family decided to go camping in the countryside.
- 2 Daisy wasn't excited because she wanted _____.
- 3 Peter wanted _____ at the beach.

When they arrived, Daisy and Peter explored the campsite and their parents put up the tent. There was a shop and a playground, where Daisy and Peter saw a boy and a girl. "Hello, I'm Paul and this is my sister Anna," said the boy. "Come and play with us!" "We have to go back to our tent, but come with us!" said Daisy. "We can play there."

- 4 Daisy and Peter's parents put up _____ while Daisy and Peter explored.
- 5 Daisy and Peter met _____ and asked them to come to their tent.

The next day it was sunny. "Can we go and play with Paul and Anna?" asked Daisy. "Not now. We're going to go to the beach today," said Mum. "You can play with them when we get back. Now, put your swimsuit and snorkel in your backpack and let's go!"

At the beach, the children had fun playing in the sea. Dad went on a boat trip and caught some fish.

"You can invite your new friends and their parents to eat with us," said Mum. "We're going to have a barbecue. We're going to eat the fish Dad caught."

"Great!" said Daisy and Peter.

- 6 Daisy and Peter's mum told them to take their _____ to the beach.
- 7 Their dad went on a boat trip and _____.
- 8 Daisy and Peter invited Paul and Anna's family to come to a _____.
