

- 1 When you do a note-taking task, some words may be spelt out for you. You must write these words correctly, so it is important that you understand the English alphabet. Look at the English alphabet on the right and repeat the names of the letters after your teacher. Then work with a partner. Take it in turns to spell these things out loud.

- 1 your first name
- 2 your surname
- 3 your teacher's name
- 4 the name of your town
- 5 the name of your favourite American actor

- 2 Work with a partner to spell these words out loud. Do you know what they mean or where they come from? Try and guess! Listen and check your answers.
