Grade 5

Name :_____ Date:_____

Grammar

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Language Arts
Grammar

A. In each of the five sentences below, a noun is underlined. Identify the noun category, then circle the letter next to the correct answer.

1. Denia is the manageress of the team.

   (a) Proper
   (b) Abstract
   (c) Feminine Gender

2. The characters in the movie were stereotypes.

   (a) Common
   (b) Neuter
   (c) Abstract

3. The herd was moving along slowly.

   (a) Proper
   (b) Collective
   (c) Abstract

4. Knowledge is a powerful weapon.

   (a) Collective
   (b) Common
   (c) Abstract

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Annabel was a great competitor at the National Reading Competition, sponsored by Courts, Unicomer.

(a) Common
(b) Proper
(c) Abstract

B. Choose the correct option to complete each sentence then circle the letter next to the correct answer.

1. I think that you should treat older people with some more _____.

(a) respects
(b) respect
(c) respecting

2. The child's voice can be heard _____.

(a) in the distance
(b) distance
(c) distant

3. The organization _____ last December so they were able to complete a project.

(a) spent funds for charity
(b) raised funds for charity
(c) reduced funds for charity

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. I'd like to read today's _____. However, I can't find it among these _____.

(a) papers/paper
(b) paper/papers
(c) paper/paper

5. Could you turn on the _____? They are needed in this classroom.

(a) light
(b) lights
(c) light bulb

C. Read the paragraph below carefully. Identify the nouns in the sentences below then circle the letter next to the correct answer.

I took my dog to an Obedience School, but after a month, we were asked to leave. It wasn't her fault. Jessie is an intelligent dog. It was her owner who rebelled against the system. I neglected our homework, refused to use the choke chain and let her sniff the trees.

1. The nouns in sentence 1 are:

(a) took, dog, Obedience
(b) dog, school, month
(c) Obedience School, month, dog

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. The noun, fault, in sentence 2 is a/an _____

(a) Proper Noun
(b) Common Noun
(c) Abstract Noun

3. The noun/nouns in sentence 3 is/are:

(a) Jessie, dog
(b) Jessie
(c) dog

4. The noun, owner, in sentence 4 is a / an _____.

(a) proper noun
(b) common noun
(c) abstract noun

5. The noun/nouns in sentence five is/are

(a) homework, chain, trees
(b) choke, chain, trees
(c) sniff, trees, chain, homework

LIVEWORKSHEETS

D. Complete each of the phrases below to form sentences then circle the letter next to the correct answer.

1. Too few students _____.

   (a) signed up for the class.
   (b) signed recent for the class.
   (c) signed out for the class

2. _____can hurt badly.

   (a) An injury to the elbow
   (b) An injury for the elbow
   (c) An injuries to the elbow

3. The refrigerator was _____.

   (a) filled of fresh fruits
   (b) full of fresh fruits
   (c) full for fresh fruits

E. Identify the underlined word or phrase in each case then circle the letter next to the correct answer.

1. The novice singer has many fans.

   (a) subject
   (b) predicate
   (c) nouns

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2. Is vanilla a flavour?

(a) subject
(b) predicate
(c) exclamatory sentence

3. The queues are long at the banks almost every Friday.

(a) predicate
(b) sentence
(c) phrase

F. Read each sentence carefully and identify each kind then circle the letter next to the correct answer.

1. Don't you have a more recent dictionary?

(a) exclamatory
(b) interrogative/question
(c) declarative/statement

2. Please give me directions to Chausee Road.

(a) exclamatory
(b) declarative/ statement
(c) imperative/ request

3. What a great time we had at the fair!

(a) exclamatory
(b) imperative/request
(c) declarative/statement

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Your order is ready.

(a) exclamatory
(b) declarative/ statement
(c) imperative/request

G. Choose the correct answer to complete each sentence then circle its letter.

1. John is an unmarried man. Therefore, he is a _____.

(a) bachelor
(b) spinster
(c) widow

2. _____ is the feminine of drake.

(a) boar
(b) duck
(c) ram

3. The masculine form of the word, niece, is _____.

(a) cousin
(b) brother
(c) nephew

4. All of the following are of the feminine gender EXCEPT _____.

(a) hen
(b) goose
(c) gander

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. All of Ms. Mya's possessions belong to her nephew when she dies. This makes her nephew the _____.

(a) heiress
(b) heir
(c) hero

LIVEWORKSHEETS