

CRAZY COOKING CLASS

Read the story. Write some words to complete the sentences about the story. Use 1, 2 or 3 words.

Last Saturday, Lucy and her brother Ben went to a cooking class in town. They were excited because they loved making desserts. The class was in a small kitchen above a bakery. When they arrived, they saw ten other children wearing white hats and aprons.

"Today we're making chocolate cupcakes!" said Mr. Cook, the teacher. Everyone cheered. First, the children mixed flour, sugar, eggs, milk, and chocolate in big bowls. Ben accidentally dropped some flour on his face, and everyone laughed. Then the children poured the mixture into cupcake cups and put them into the oven.

While the cakes were baking, Mr. Cook showed them how to make pink strawberry frosting. Lucy carefully mixed the butter and sugar and Ben put in the milk.

After twenty minutes, the cupcakes were ready. They smelled delicious! The children decorated them with frosting and colorful sweets.

Suddenly, Mr. Cook looked worried. "Where's my cat, Muffin?" he asked.

At that moment, they heard a strange noise under the table. Muffin jumped out with pink frosting all over her face! She had eaten three cupcakes and left tiny paw prints across the kitchen floor. Everyone laughed so hard that even Mr. Cook couldn't stop smiling.
