catch up   co-operate with   fall out   fond of   get on with get to know   have a lot in common   rely on

I've just been on a team-building course for my summer job. To be honest with you, I wasn't looking forward to it because I'm not very <sup>1</sup> _____ training courses like this. I always worry that I'll be stuck with a group of people that I don't <sup>2</sup> _____ with. However, I've been thinking about the course since I got home, and I've realised that I quite enjoyed it. For a start, everyone made an effort to be friendly and <sup>3</sup> _____ each other. Taking part in the first day's activities really helped us <sup>4</sup> _____ each other better – and ourselves, maybe. For example, in one activity we had to work in teams to move some equipment across a river. I had to <sup>5</sup> _____ my teammates to find a solution to the problem, and it made me realise that it's OK to <sup>6</sup> _____ other people sometimes. I don't have to do everything myself.

5 Write two sentences using the two phrasal verbs you didn't use in Ex 4.

Cumulative review

6 Choose the correct alternative: A, B or C.

Will Hi Katy, you look really tired. What's up?

Will I see. So what <sup>3</sup> _____?

Katy There was a party last Saturday. Everyone was having a really great time. I took some photos of my best friends dancing. The next day I <sup>4</sup> _____ the photos with a couple of people who weren't at the party, and someone posted them on social media.

Will Who did that?

Katy I don't know – it wasn't me. But people <sup>5</sup> _____ rude comments about my friends for the last few days. They're really upset.

Will Do they know it was you that took the photos?

Katy No, I haven't spoken to them <sup>6</sup> _____ the party. I'm too frightened – I don't want to <sup>7</sup> _____ out with them. They're my oldest friends – I <sup>8</sup> _____ them for years.

Will Well, you've <sup>9</sup> _____ said it wasn't your fault the photos ended up online. I think you need to <sup>10</sup> _____ with your friends and tell them the truth. I'm sure they'll understand.
