

Present Perfect — Practice Worksheet

Formula: Subject + has / have + past participle

have gone to = still on the way / still there | have been to = visited & came back | have been in = still there, with duration

for + period of time (for two years) | since + point in time (since 2020)

Part A — Circle the correct answer

Choose have gone to, have been to, or have been in.

1. She _____ (have gone to / have been to) Paris twice. She loved it both times.
2. He _____ (has gone to / has been in) the hospital for three days. He's still there.
3. They _____ (have gone to / have been to) the concert. They're on their way now.
4. I _____ (have been in / have been to) this city for six months and I love it here.

Part B — Fill in the blank: for or since

1. I've lived here _____ 2018.
2. She has been sick _____ three days.
3. We haven't spoken _____ last Monday.
4. He has worked at that company _____ ten years.
5. They've been married _____ a long time.
6. I haven't eaten _____ this morning.

Part C — Complete the sentences

Use the verb in parentheses in the Present Perfect. Add a time adverb from the box.

once twice never ever so far up to now many times

1. I _____ (eat) sushi. It was amazing!
2. She _____ (visit) her grandparents this year.
3. Have you _____ (try) scuba diving?
4. _____ (you / be) to a concert? How many times?
5. We _____ (not / finish) the project yet.

Part D — Write about yourself

Answer in full sentences using the Present Perfect.

1. Have you ever played an online game? _____

2. Have you ever gone sailing? _____

3. Have you ever taken an airplane? _____

4. What is something you have done twice in your life? _____

5. What have you never done but want to try? _____

Great work! Remember: has/have + past participle. Use for with periods, since with dates or moments.
