

Capital Letters

Direction: Read and rewrite the following paragraph in the box provided below putting in all the necessary capital letters.

carol and her sister susan are chinese tourists, who came to the bahamas to visit atlantis in paradise island. that sunday morning i was appointed as their tour guide, so i showed them around the hotel and then later i took them along bay street. the sisters were delighted when they got to the nassau straw market and were amused by the variety of bahamian made craft items. from there i took them to rawson square and gave them a tour of our parliament building. they were informed that our parliament is divided into two chambers: the house of assembly and the senate. the young ladies and i spent the remainder of the day interacting with other tourists from the u.s.a., canada, and others from various caribbean countries.