

• Match the words with their definitions:

a) Fever b) Sprain c) Cough d) Broken bone

- ___ A sudden injury to a ligament.
- ___ High body temperature.
- ___ A condition where a bone is fractured.
- ___ Expelling air from the lungs with a sharp sound.

• Complete the sentences with the correct verb:

- She _____ her ankle while playing soccer.
- He often _____ when the weather changes.
- The doctor told me I had _____ the flu.

• Rewrite the sentences using should:

- It's important to drink water every day. → You _____.
- Don't eat too much junk food. → You _____.

• Give advice for these situations using should:

- Your friend has a headache.
- A student is always late to class.

Fill in the blanks with ever or never:

- Have you _____ visited London?
- I have _____ eaten sushi before.
- She has _____ traveled by plane.

Complete the sentences with the correct past participle:

- I have _____ (go) to the doctor twice this month.
- She has _____ (break) her arm.
- They have _____ (eat) too much candy.

Write a short paragraph (6–8 sentences) about a health problem you or someone you know has had. Use:

- At least 2 health problem words.
- Should for advice.
- Present perfect with ever/never.
- At least 2 irregular past participle verbs.

Fill in the blanks with ever or never:

- Have you _____ visited London?
- I have _____ eaten sushi before.
- She has _____ traveled by plane.
- He has _____ played basketball.
- Have you _____ broken a bone?

Complete the sentences with the correct past participle:

- I have _____ (go) to the doctor twice this month.
- She has _____ (break) her arm.
- They have _____ (eat) too much candy.
- He has _____ (write) three letters today.
- We have _____ (see) that movie before.