POSSESSIVE ADJECTIVES
FATHER'S DAY

Read the two sentences. Complete the second sentence with my, your, her, his, its, our, or their.

1. Tom has got a Father's Day card. _____ card is blue.
2. I have got a gift for my dad. _____ gift is in a box.
3. You have got a photo of your father. _____ photo is on the table.
4. Sarah has got flowers for her dad. _____ flowers are beautiful.
5. My father has got a new tie. _____ tie is green.
6. We have got a cake for Father's Day. _____ cake is chocolate.
7. The kids got a present for their father. _____ present is very special.
8. The dog has got a Father's Day bandana. _____ bandana is red.
9. I have got a Father's Day poem. _____ poem is for my dad.
10. You have got a mug for your father. _____ mug says "Best Dad".
11. Lisa has got a picture for her dad. _____ picture is colorful.
12. Mr. Brown has got a barbecue. _____ barbecue is in the garden.
13. We have got balloons for Father's Day. _____ balloons are blue.
14. Ben and Max have got a card for their dad. _____ card is funny.
15. The cat has got a toy for Father's Day. _____ toy is small.
16. I have got breakfast for my father. _____ breakfast is ready.
17. You have got a book for your dad. _____ book is creative.
18. Anna has got chocolates for her dad. ___ chocolates are delicious.
19. My granddad has got a Father's Day gift. ___ gift is from his family.
20. We have got a family photo for Father's Day. _____ photo shows everyone smiling.

LIVEWORKSHEETS