EXERCISE B Read the story and underline would + verb.

The first one is an example.

Before Paul was in the military, his life was very different from the way it is now. He would stay up late at night, and he would get up late in the morning. He didn't have good health habits, so he would never go for walks or work out. He wouldn't buy foods that were good for his health. He bought chips and hamburgers instead because he thought they tasted better. He enjoyed having lots of friends and liked to talk to them often, so they would call him at any time during the day or night to talk. He also liked to play loud music on his stereo, so his neighbors would have to ask him to turn down the sound at 10:00 p.m. He was still a single man, and his parents would ask him to come for dinner on Sundays.

EXERCISE C Answer the questions with would or wouldn't.

1. Would Paul stay up late before he was in the military?

2. When would Paul get up?

3. How often would Paul go for walks or work out?

4. What would Paul buy instead of good food to eat?

5. Would Paul's friends call him only during the day?

6. Why would Paul's neighbors ask him to turn down his stereo?

7. Where would he go on Sundays for dinner?
