Reading Passage 1:

Summary of My Weekend Activities

Last weekend, Peter had a very busy and exciting time. On Saturday morning, he woke up at 7:30 AM and made a big breakfast. He ate eggs, three pieces of bread with butter, and drank a large glass of orange juice. He loves fresh fruit juice. After breakfast, he cleaned his apartment and put some fresh vegetables—onions, carrots, and potatoes—on the kitchen counter. Then, he placed the meat and dairy products like cheese and yogurt in the refrigerator.

In the afternoon, Peter went to the park and played soccer with his friends for two hours. They had a lot of fun. In the evening, he felt tired, so he did not cook. Instead, he went to a new Italian restaurant down the street. He ordered a bowl of seafood pasta and drank sparkling water. For dessert, he ordered chocolate cake. Many people change their eating habits when they travel on vacation. Last month, Laura and her family traveled to a beautiful beach resort for a one-week vacation. At home, they usually eat a simple breakfast of cereal and milk. However, at the resort hotel, they ate a very large breakfast every morning. The hotel restaurant offered many options: eggs, chicken sausages, fresh bread, cheese, and lots of fruit like pineapples and papayas. Laura drank three cups of coffee with sugar every day, which she doesn't usually do at home.

During the day, they walked on the beach, swam in the ocean, and played volleyball. Because they were active, they were always hungry by lunchtime. For lunch, they ate fresh fish and rice.
