

2 Are these statements true or false or doesn't it say?

Write T for True (igaz) F for False (hamis) or D for doesn't say (nem említi a szöveg)

- 1 Greg isn't hungry.
- 2 Luke eats Rosy's sandwich.
- 3 Anna isn't nervous.
- 4 The headmistress wants to see Anna as well.
- 5 Mrs Bent is talking to her husband when Rosy arrives.
- 6 The secretary's name is Janet.
- 7 Mr Bent has told his wife that he saw Rosy.
- 8 Rosy tells Mrs Bent that she took the afternoon off.

4 a Complete the expressions from the story.

- 1 How do you _____?
- 2 Don't _____.
- 3 It'll _____ all right.
- 4 I _____ starving.
- 5 Just _____ cool.
- 6 That's easy _____ you to say.
- 7 She won't _____ long.
- 8 She's just _____ the phone.
- 9 What shall I _____?
- 10 Start _____ the beginning.

Expressing worries

5 a Find expressions in the story to match the pictures.

Example: 1. My legs feel like jelly.

2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

Choose the correct words

It's lunchtime and Rosy feels very nervous / happy, because she has to go and see the ²restaurant manager / head teacher. She says she feels sick and can't eat her ³sandwich / chocolate. Luke ¹ eats it, because he says he's ⁴thirsty / starving. He tells Rosy to stay ⁵at home / cool, but Rosy tells him that it's all his ⁶problem / fault.

Rosy goes to Mrs Bent's ⁷office / house. When Mrs Bent comes out of her office, she tells ⁸the secretary / Rosy that if her ⁹husband / mother phones she should say that Mrs Bent is already ¹⁰creating / dealing with the problem.

Rosy thinks that Mr Bent ¹¹has / hasn't told Mrs Bent that he saw Rosy at ¹²Wimbledon / the restaurant. She thinks she is in real ¹³difficulty / trouble.

Rosy tells Mrs Bent that she's ¹⁴sorry / worried that she took the ¹⁵week / afternoon off to ¹⁶watch / play tennis. Mrs Bent doesn't understand, because Rosy was doing ¹⁷work experience / exams that week. She tells Rosy to start at the ¹⁸end / beginning and tell her ¹⁹nothing / all about it.