NEW BOOKS

A. The Return

A mother's missing son turns up at her door one day. He was gone for the past 10 years. Who took him? Where has he been all this time? You won't be disappointed with this excellent crime novel. And if you like to be kept waiting, this is the book for you. It is the first in a series of three, so you won't find out who did it until the third book!

B. Tasty treats

This is a great idea for friends or family who can't stop asking themselves and others "What am I supposed to cook today?". Basic simple food, quick to prepare and at a low cost. The author uses ingredients that everybody has in their kitchen cupboards. Nothing complicated, only healthy and convenient.

C. A Life Well Lived

A Life Well Lived is an interesting piece of fiction based on the life of Blues singer Billy Holiday. Billy Holiday has been one of the very few musicians who has been such a great inspiration to other musicians as well as music itself. A perfect find for music lovers, or anyone who is interested in the history of Blues music and its influence.

D. The Long Road

Although this is quite an old-fashioned book in the way it is written, this excellent translation gives this historical work new life. The Long Road is great for history lovers but especially for anybody interested in other cultures and languages. Many may find it boring, but the few who will actually understand it will be amazed.

E. The History of Food

Do not rely on the title to get the full picture! It is, in fact, a recipe book but it is based on what people used to eat in the past and is full of interesting food from all around the world. The History of Food is a great book for anybody who likes to spend hours in the kitchen.

F. The Search

Do you love wildlife and nature? With this book there is no need to bother to get off the sofa to travel to beautiful destinations. It's better than any travel brochure and full of wonderful photography and interesting facts for the curious. You'll feel like you're actually there.

G. Going to Extremes

Do you like travelling and taking part in extreme sports? Written by an extreme sports athlete who has done just about everything in every location, this book is the perfect guide to the best places for those who love excitement and want to achieve their dream. A book for the brave ones!

H. The Emperors

This is history brought to life for anybody with an interest in the deep drama and danger of Ancient Rome, where life and death depended on the mood of the Emperor. The Emperors is beautifully illustrated with interesting information about the architecture and culture of this ancient civilisation.

PART 3 Questions 11-15

For each question, choose the correct answer.

My summer volunteering by Tina Newbury

At the age of 14 I have already decided that I want to be a vet. So, last summer I convinced my parents to spend our summer holidays volunteering. I really wanted to deal with sea animals, so when a friend told me about Archelon, the sea turtle organisation in Greece, I was really excited because I would leave the UK for the first time and go to a perfect destination, but I had no idea how amazing it would really be or how many new friends I would make. Now, I would recommend volunteering to any student who wants to get job experience, or simply have fun and meet great people.

Turtles have been on our planet for millions of years but are dying in large numbers because of fishing and pollution. This was a shock to me when I spent a few days at the Rescue Centre in Athens before leaving for my first project. There, I found out that the majority of the centre's turtles had been injured on the head by humans. Some were by accident, from speedboats, but a lot were done on purpose, often by angry fishermen, as these creatures get caught in their fishing nets while trying to eat the fish which are part of their natural diet. For the fishermen, however, this has a cost, as fewer fish mean less money, so they view the turtle as their enemy, even though these turtles are a protected species. And as if this isn't enough for these unlucky creatures to deal with, they also face the problem of eating plastic bags, thinking they are jellyfish, which are a key part of their diet.

The following months were spent learning and having fun in five different locations, but the most memorable was the last project, where we camped in an old museum with no electricity or water. However, the main problem was the insects which shared the museum with us, especially those that bit. But even that could not stop me from enjoying the daily contact with the turtles, and relaxing around a campfire sharing stories after sunset. Volunteering is a life experience I really recommend for any student.

11. What do we learn about Tina in the first paragraph?

- A. She has a job with animals.
- B. She only likes sea animals.
- C. She is going to be an animal doctor.
- D. She finished studying a year ago.

12. While Tina was in Greece,

- A. she found out about an organisation called Archelon.
- B. she enjoyed herself and formed new friendships.
- C. she volunteered for several animal organisations.
- D. she worked for Archelon as part of her training.

13. What does Tina say about the fishermen?

- A. Their actions make her angry.
- B. She understands their actions.
- C. They try to look after the turtles.
- D. They try to catch the turtles.

14. Tina suggests that

- A. despite the difficulties she enjoyed herself.
- B. insects spoilt her last project.
- C. having no water was a big problem.
- D. she enjoyed the nights most.

15. Which of the following is the best description of Tina?

- | | | | |
|----|--|----|---|
| A. | a professional woman who is paid to look after sea turtles | B. | a girl who hopes to help animals through her work in the future |
| C. | a girl who has been volunteering abroad in her summer holidays for years | D. | a girl who had wanted to help turtles all her life |

PART 4 Questions 16-20

Five sentences have been removed from the text below. For each question, choose the correct answer. There are three extra sentences which you do not need to use.

Cycling the Most Dangerous Road

Like most children, I got my first bicycle at a young age. You could easily tell from all the pictures that I fell in love with it from the moment I saw it. So, while most children grow out of cycling, I took it to a whole new level.

16 My mum was not too keen on the idea but soon got used to it.

Nowadays, every spare moment I ever have I'm out, exploring different places. 17 Hills, mountains, forests, nothing beats that sense of achievement when you manage to get through some of the most difficult landscapes on a bike. It's not so much about others knowing what you can do, but rather proving to yourself that you are able to do it.

And of course, there's being in the natural environment. 18 Breathing some fresh air while getting away from the city not only relaxes you but also keeps you healthy.

So, when I saw an advertisement for cyclists to join a group to cycle in Bolivia, I was not just keen. 19 My mum was terrified when I announced I wanted to go, but as my father is a keen cyclist himself, he managed to persuade her that we should definitely go.

The Yungas Hwy is the world's most dangerous road. An average of twenty six vehicles disappear over its edge every year. 20 With only space for one vehicle the 1,000 metre drops are terrifying. Add to that the waterfalls, which fall directly onto the road, and the journey becomes even more dangerous as you try to avoid the frequent speeding lorries. But despite this, the excitement draws cyclists from around the world. And I just couldn't be the one to miss it.

- A. Just to be outside, travelling through nature, is enough of a reason to do this.
- B. I must admit, it was a country I had never wanted to visit.
- C. Actually, it's more of a track than a road.
- D. All my friends got motorbikes or cars.
- E. The trouble is finding the free time.
- F. It was a dream opportunity not to be missed.
- G. The more challenging, the better.
- H. This meant getting myself a mountain bike and being out in all weathers.

PART 5 Questions 21-26

For each question, choose the correct answer.

An interesting school project

by Terry Smith

This month we're doing a project on unusual animals and my team got the Japanese Macaques, or as they are often called, snow monkeys. It was exciting to (21)..... out so much about them.

These monkeys live at much lower temperatures than any other monkeys, feeding on a few plants while trying hard to stay warm. But what makes them so strange is their (22)..... to pass on new ideas to each other, something (23)..... in a scientific study when a single snow monkey started washing her food in the ocean. Following this, after a few generations, every monkey was doing it.

People who are (24)..... in the Macaques often visit the Jigokudani Monkey Park in Jigokudani Valley, Japan. There the Macaques often have hot baths on a snowy winter's day. Well, this is not part of their typical (25)..... . They have once again copied a single snow monkey who decided to jump into the hot spring water back in 1963 on a(n) (26)..... cold day.

PART 6 Questions 27-32

For each question, write the correct answer. Write ONE word for each gap.

A person I admire
by Lea Carson

People are always trying to do things never achieved (27)..... , and Ross Edgley is definitely one of the few who are brave (28)..... to try to do the incredible. Ross, a thirty-three-year-old fitness expert, is the first person in history to swim the 1,792-mile journey around Great Britain. His amazing journey of 157 days (29)..... even recorded in a weekly internet series, "Ross Edgley's Great British Swim".

Although he may (30)..... best-known for this achievement, he has done plenty of other extraordinary things, ranging from running a marathon while pulling a 1.4 tonne car (31)..... completing an Olympic Distance Triathlon carrying a 100-lbs tree.

The reason I admire Ross, however, is (32)..... so much that he is one of the fittest men alive, but for the fact that he wishes to teach us that the human body is much more powerful than our minds often lead us to believe.
