

Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde (chapters 4-9)

Be careful with spelling and spaces mistakes! Everything is evaluated...

Order and enumerate the following sentences about “The Carew Murder”

- ☐ Then she saw another, very small man going along the street the opposite way.
- ☐ The old man was hit with a stick.
- ☐ A young woman servant saw it happen.
- ☐ She saw an old man with white hair coming along the street below her window.
- ☐ In October 1880, there was a terrible crime in a London street.
- ☐ The small man was Mr. Hyde.
- ☐ The young woman called the police.

Order the words to make the questions for these answers...

ENVELOPE DO YOU WITH DID WHAT THE ?

“I burned it without thinking”

HEARD YOU NEWS THE HAVE ?

“Yes, I have heard”

HYDE YOU AGAIN SEE WILL ?

“I will never see him again”

ABOUT ARE YOU HYDE WORRIED ?

“No, I'm not”

Continue the sentence, match with an arrow.

Mr Utterson decided to show Guest

The clerk put the dinner invitation and Thousands of pounds were offered for

Mr Utterson was shocked at the pale and the letter side by side and studied them.

sick appearance change in Dr Lanyon.

the letter because he was very clever
about handwriting.

information about Sir Danvers Carew's murderer.

Complete the sentence. Drag the word to the correct space.

disappears

faces

friend's letter

death

Mr Utterson was very sad about the _____ of his old friend.

He sat down in Lanyon's office and found a _____.

“Do not open until Dr Henry Jekyll dies or _____”.

Even if we can't go in, he will be able to hear a _____ voice.

Both of their _____ were pale, and there was a shocked look in their eyes.

Drag the boxes to the correct space.

	Extract ""	Who does say it?	The word in bold refers to...	Verb tense and form
Jekyll to Mr. Utterson	It won't become better				Present perfect (Negative form)
Utterson to Jekyll	Perhaps you will be able to help us in our search for the killer, sir				Present simple (Interrogative form)
The inspector to Utterson	I gave it to Henry Jekyll personally.				Past Simple (Interrogative Form)
Mr Utterson to Poole	When did you last see him before last night?				Past Simple (Affirmative Form)
Utterson to the old woman	'Do you have the envelope?				Simple Future (Affirmative Form)
Utterson to the inspector.	"I don't think I have ever met Mr Hyde here "				Simple Future (Negative Form)

Jekyll's
workroom

Mr Jekyll

Mr.
Hyde

Mr Hyde's
stick

A bad thing
about Mr.
Hyde

The
police

Write the interrogative form of the previous extracts.

It won't become better

You will be able to help us in our search for the killer.

I gave it to Henry Jekyll personally.

I don't think I have ever met Mr Hyde here"

Do not forget to take and save screenshots or print screens when you check the answers. Then upload them in our Google Classroom

