

A conversation

1 ☆ 🔊 15 Listen to part of a radio programme about travel. Which question are the people discussing?

- a What advantages can tourism bring to wild places?
- b Should we limit the number of tourists who visit wild places?

2 ☆☆ Listen again. Choose the correct answers.

- 1 According to James, the people who visit wild places like Antarctica
 - a don't think about the problems it causes for the environment.
 - b don't really care about the environment.
- 2 The number of tourists to Antarctica is limited
 - a by a new law.
 - b by the weather.
- 3 According to James, the biggest problem in the Galapagos Islands comes from
 - a pollution in the sea from ships that bring visitors.
 - b waste that tourists leave on the islands.
- 4 According to James, tourism
 - a doesn't usually help local farmers.
 - b often provides money for local people.
- 5 James believes that tourism in wild places
 - a should be stopped completely.
 - b should be controlled.