Understand what pronouns refer to

Pronouns are short words that we use in place of other nouns (I, me, you, he, him, she, her, it, we, us, they, them). They usually refer to something that comes before the pronoun. For example: I have a dog. It is called Bailey.

3 060 Listen to Christopher answering questions about his family and things. Complete the chart with the missing information.

Name	Christopher
Number of brothers Name(s)	One
Number of sisters
Pet(s)	dog <input type="checkbox"/> cat <input type="checkbox"/> fish <input type="checkbox"/> no pets <input type="checkbox"/>
Possessions	phone <input type="checkbox"/> guitar <input type="checkbox"/> bike <input type="checkbox"/> game console <input type="checkbox"/>

Real English

Check the meanings of these phrases.

- That's a nice name.*
- I'm crazy about ...*
- I love it!*
- It's my favorite thing!*

STEP 3

4 Do you know your partner? Complete the information in exercise 3 for them on your own.

5 Pairwork Then use the words and phrases in the box to ask questions to check your answers and find out more information.

Order points

When you write, you start by deciding what information you want to include. After that, you need to decide what information you want to put first, next, and last. This makes your writing easier to read.

2 Read the Skill focus. Choose what Haley writes about in each paragraph of her profile.

Paragraph 1:

What she likes / Her personal information

Paragraph 2:

Her personal information / Her family

Paragraph 3:

What she likes / Her family

STEP 3

3 Complete the information about you and your family.
