

Unit 4

Modals of Deduction and Possibility

1) Complete the conversation about the photo with “must – might – can’t”

A: Look at this photo! What is it?

B: It might be a house.

A: No, it _____ be! How would you get in?

B: It _____ be a fake photo. You never know.....

A: No, the photo's real. I think it _____ be art or something. There _____ be another explanation.
I'm sure the artist is famous.

B: Perhaps..., you _____ be right. The person who designed it _____ be very creative!!

2) Rewrite the sentences so that they have the same meaning. Use must, might or can't.

Example: Perhaps Nathan is still at school.

Nathan might still be at school.

a. I am sure that isn't the right answer.

b. I am sure you need good exam results to do medicine at university.

c. This is possibly the worst film I have ever seen.

d. I am sure it doesn't take a long time to make that dish.
