An Overview of Oakhaven Town

Oakhaven is an old historic town located in the south of the country. It is a very beautiful and quiet place, but it is also quite expensive to live here. In the heart of Oakhaven, there is a large traditional market square where local people sell fresh vegetables, fruits, and handmade products every Saturday morning. Near the market square, there is a modern library and a famous historical museum, but there is not a cinema. If residents want to watch new movies, they must travel to a larger city nearby.

The town has excellent facilities, including a large pharmacy next to the central post office and two supermarkets. Accommodation in Oakhaven consists mainly of historic houses and new apartment blocks. A typical flat in the center is small, but it usually features a bright living room, a modern kitchen, a bathroom, and a small balcony with plants. Most new buildings include a garage for parking cars, as street parking is highly restricted. Oakhaven is very safe, and tourists find it easy to navigate because there are clear signposts giving directions to all major landmarks.
