The Neighborhood Library

The Greenriver Neighborhood Library is an important facility that serves as a community hub for residents of all ages. Originally built in a small suburb, the library has recently moved to a larger building near the pedestrian street. It offers a wide range of services, including a study space, free internet access, and weekly reading clubs for children. A team of hard-working librarians takes care of the books and helps visitors find the information they need.

In addition to reading, the library plays a vital role in preserving local history. It houses a collection of old photographs, maps, and records about the history of the neighbourhood. The library also collaborates with local artisans to hold workshops
