READING PART 1

1. Choose the correct answer that goes with this text.

1. Choose the correct answer that goes with this text.

Recycling center staff will clean items for recycling.

Certain items need to be washed before they are recycled.

All items can be placed in the same recycling bin.

A. The staff clean the items.

B. Some items must be washed first.

C. There are different recycling bins.

Recycling Centre Users

Glass, plastic and metal items must be cleaned before you bring them to the recycling centre. Please place them in the correct recycling bin – the recycling centre staff are there to help.

2. Choose the correct answer that goes with this text.

Ruth has kept to her plan despite the change in the weather.

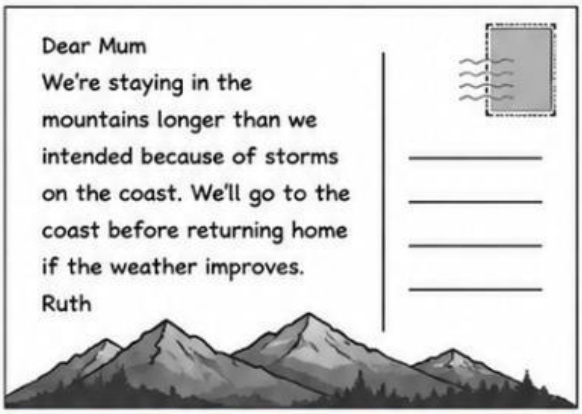

Ruth may not visit the coast if the bad weather continues.

Ruth intends to leave the mountains early to visit the coast.

A. Ruth is not going to the coast.

B. Ruth will go to the coast first.

C. Ruth is still going to the mountains.

3. Choose the correct answer that goes with this text.

Passengers flying to European airports must go to a different location.

You can fly all over the world from Terminal 1.

Anyone wanting to fly to America should look for the signs.

A. All flights go from Terminal 1.

B. Flights to Europe leave from Terminal 2.

C. Flights to America are not here.

Welcome to Terminal 1.
This terminal is for flights within the US only. For destinations in Europe, please follow the yellow signs for Terminal 2.

4. Choose the correct answer that goes with this text.

Passengers are informed that they are not allowed to open train windows.
Train windows are to open only when the train has entered a station.
Passengers are prohibited from putting their heads out of the window when the train has left the station.

A. Do not open the window.

B. Keep your head inside.

C. Open the window at the station.

Do not lean out of the train window or open the door while the train is moving.

5. Choose the correct answer that goes with this text.

Students of any year group are able to come to the careers talk.
Students should go to the talk if they need help applying for a job.
Students must register quickly because places at the event are limited.

A. The talk is only for final-year students.

B. You must book early for the talk.

C. The talk is about starting your first job.

Final-year Students

Ex-students from our course are coming here next week to talk to you about how to do well in your first job. Space for a maximum of thirty students, so sign up now.

LIVEWORKSHEETS