Worksheet 1C: Conjunctions – although, while and whereas

1 Match the halves to complete the rules.

a	Although is used to …	… balance two ideas or events that contrast with or are different from each other.
b	While and Whereas are used to …	… show the contrast between two opposing events or ideas. It's similar to 'but'.

2 Complete the following sentences using a suitable word.

a ..... it rained heavily, the festival wasn't cancelled.

b I love eating all kinds of food ..... my sister always chooses vegetarian dishes.

c Mariah didn't get the scholarship ..... she got high marks.

d ..... the interviewer spoke very quickly, the audience understood him.

e Thanksgiving isn't popular in the UK ..... the harvest festival is celebrated widely in schools and churches.

f My parents love going to the cinema ..... my brother and I prefer watching films on TV.

3 Join the following sentences. You may need to omit some words.

a The south of the country has dry warm weather. The north of the country is wetter and cooler.

.....

b The south of the country has dry warm weather. It can occasionally rain a lot.

.....

c Most new laptops have several USB slots. Mine has only one, which is strange.

.....

d Old computers had slots for CD-ROMs. Modern computers don't have slots for CD-ROMs.

.....

e I prefer to work on my own. I'm good at working in teams.

.....

f Languages such as English, Spanish or French use the Roman alphabet. Russian, Greek and Arabic use different alphabets.

.....

LIVEWORKSHEETS